

Exhibition : Haunting Memories

May 13 - June 5

Gallery Korea of the Korean Cultural Service NY

Opening Reception: Wednesday, May 13, 6-8 pm

This exhibition is by six contemporary emerging and mid-career Korean artists, who draw humor, wit and sensation out of personal experience. The artists were selected from the finalists of "Call for Artists 2009" and the exhibition will introduce Christine Sun Kim's childish paintings on memories of her early life, Eva Jung's installation associating gone-by feelings and urban objects, Young Rong Bae's sarcastic paintings on her legal and linguistic status as a Korean immigrant, Young Min Moon's mixed media exploring poetic and political potential of language, Baishian Bai's mixed media with a special emphasis on a toy as an object representing a relationship between a person and an object, and Ke-Sook Lee's delicate paper work on the borderline between drawing and installation recalling her memories.

Curated by Ms. Yu Jin Hwang.

460 Park Ave. 6th Fl. (Bet. 57th and 58th St.)

MAP Tel: 212-759-9550

www.koreanculture.org